

ASSISTANT LECTURER: ACCOUNTING

(3 - year Part-time contract)

COLLEGE OF ACCOUNTING

FACULTY OF COMMERCE

UCT is an inclusive and engaged research-intensive African university that inspires creativity through outstanding achievements in learning, discovery, and citizenship, enhancing the lives of its students and staff, advancing a more equitable and sustainable social order, and influencing the global higher education landscape.

The College of Accounting (College) is one of the largest departments in UCT's Faculty of Commerce. The College is seeking to appoint an Assistant Lecturer on a contract post (20 hours per week) for an initial period of three years, reviewed thereafter subject to availability of funding.

This role is ideally suited to a researcher with a master's degree (minimum) and a passion for supporting postgraduate teaching, research and scholarship. Reporting to the Head of Department, the successful candidate will provide academic and research support to postgraduate students enrolled in the MCom (specialising in Financial Reporting, Analysis and Governance – FRAG) and PhD programmes, as well as research support to academic staff in the College. This is a pivotal role aimed at enhancing the research environment, sustaining programme quality, and contributing to the College's scholarly output. The department is seeking to make an appointment as soon as possible.
